

$2,770 OFFERED BOYS AND GIRLS

SMALL FORTUNE IN PREMIUMS
AT OKLAHOMA STATE FAIR,

SEPTEMBER 23-OCTOBER 4, 1913

Free Trips to Washington Authorized
By Senator Gore and Oklahoma
Cotton Seed Crushers' Association—Peanut Special

Boys and girls in every county of Oklahoma are going to be heard from in the contests arranged for the seventh annual Oklahoma State Fair and Exposition, Oklahoma City, September 23 to October 4, 1913.

It is not an unusual thing to see an acre of corn, an acre of kafir corn or milo, a couple of acres of cotton, or one-tenth of an acre of vegetables in all sections of Oklahoma. These miniature farms represent the industry of the boys and girls of this state, who propose to take part in the big contests at the State Fair which opens its gates on Sept. 23.

Ninety-five banks, in nearly every county, have offered cash premiums of $10 each in the Boys' and Girls' Corn, Kafir corn and Cotton Contests. The special premiums of the banks supplement cash prizes offered by the State Fair and others who are interested in the welfare of the boys and girls of Oklahoma.

The Atkinson, Warren & Henley Company, farm loans, of Oklahoma City, has just authorized the State Fair management to announce a sweepstake of $25 in gold to the boy or girl making the highest total score in the Kafir corn Contest. Orion McMahon of Reed, Oklahoma, won this prize last year.

A new feature this year will be seven prizes amounting to $35 for the best peck of Spanish peanuts. These specials are offered by the Russell-Duncan Jobbers' Mills of Oklahoma City for the purpose of encouraging the Spanish peanut industry in Oklahoma. The contest is open to all residents of any age in the state. Exhibits must be grown in Oklahoma. Size, color and maturity will count in the scoring. Every exhibitor in this contest will receive a large size jar of "Rusdun" peanut butter, made in Oklahoma from Oklahoma peanuts.

All told, there are 574 premiums offered to the boys and girls of Oklahoma with a total of $2,710 in cash prizes and sweepstakes in the Corn, Kafir corn, Cotton, Canning and Pig Club Contests, together with the peanut specials. The latter contest is for all ages.

In addition to the specials already mentioned, Senator T. P. Gore will give the boy or girl making the best totals more in corn, a free trip to Washington, D. C., with all expenses paid. A free trip to Washington and prizes amounting to $150 are offered by the Oklahoma Cotton Seed Crushers' Association in the Cotton Contest, while the Ft. Smith and Western Railroad offers $200 to boys in counties touched by that road for the best total score in cotton by teams and individuals. The Ft. Smith and Western has also augmented the premiums of the State Fair in the Canning Contest by offering $125 in prizes to girls residing in counties touched by that line.

The Boys' Pig Club Contest is attracting much attention and sixty-four boys from thirty-two counties will compete for the State Fair prizes and for the specials offered by Morris and Company, Sulzberger & Sons Company, the Oklahoma National Stock Yards Company and the Oklahoma Stockyards National Bank.

SUFFERED AWFUL PAINS

For Sixteen Years. Restored
To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moretown, Vermont.—"I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and was thin, weak and nervous. When I would lie down it would seem as if I was going right down out of sight into some dark hole, and the window curtains had faces that would peek out at me, and when I was out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains."

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Moretown, Vermont.

Another Case.

Gifford, Iowa.—"I was troubled with female weakness, also with displacement. I had very severe and steady headache, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. INA MILL-SLADLE, Gifford, Iowa.

Used to Such Whining.

The real estate agent, tired and peevish, arrived at his home in the suburbs.

"Oh, George," greeted his wife, "the dog has been whining all day long! What do you suppose is the matter?" "Why," growled George, "the darn kicker probably wants his house papered!"—Judge.

ECZEMA ON HEAD AND FACE

Reedy, W. Va.—"My baby boy when three weeks old took the eczema on the head and face. It broke out in pimples and first they looked like blisters and a yellow water would run from them. His head was perfectly raw and his hair was all gone. Everybody said he would never have any more hair. As the sores spread his hair came out. The breaking out itched so badly that we had to keep gloves on his hands to keep him from scratching his head and face. It caused disfigurement. He couldn't rest at night it burned and itched so badly."

"He was treated for eight months and he got worse all the time. So I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In two months he was completely cured after using the Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) G. A. Dye, Jan. 7, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

Extremely Modest.

"Rather a modest, retiring fellow in a crowd, isn't he?" "Yep. Pretty modest. Reminds me a whole lot of a governor on a state occasion surrounded by his staff of colonels—in uniform."—St. Louis Republic.

Not Fit For Ladies

Public sentiment should be against it, and we believe it is; there can be no reason why ladies should have to suffer with headaches and neuralgia, especially when Hunt's Lightning Oil gives such prompt relief. It is simply a question of getting the ladies to try it. All druggists sell Hunt's Lightning Oil in 25c and 50c bottles.—Adv.

"Why do people look down on the Pullman car porter?"
"Why, indeed! I am sure he is a man of berth."

WATCH FOR THE WRINKLES

Character Easily Told by Marks That Nature Sets on the Faces of Humanity.

Two sharp, vertical indents on the forehead, just at the top of the nose, says a writer in Tit-Bits, are a sign that the wearer is given to deep and serious thought.

A wrinkle each side of the nose, and extending from thence to the corner of the mouth, is indicative of a sarcastic and sneering disposition, amiable, and anxious to please.

Wrinkles at the corners of the eyes denote the jovial nature of an easy-going, careless person, fond of good things and of getting their own way, and—sometimes—rather indifferent to the feelings of others in attaining their own comfort.

Crowsfeet—the name given to those small wrinkles under the eyes—are almost invariably a sign of worry, trouble, dissipation, or ill health, and are often accompanied by lack-luster eyes and a tired and worn expression of the countenance in general.

A number of horizontal wrinkles on the forehead denote a fretful, petulant, worrying disposition, but one given to consideration for the feelings or sufferings of others. People whose brows are marked in this manner are usually good parents and staunch friends, though somewhat hasty and trying to the tempers of others.

Nothing Hard About Task.

It was not without just cause that Mr. Gladstone's name was given to the handy "Gladstone Bag." The grand old man was master of every detail of the art of packing. At a country house they were discussing at breakfast the right way to pack a sponge bag when the sponge had been used and was constantly water-logged. Mr. Gladstone, who apparently had been wholly absorbed in his morning's correspondence, suddenly closed the discussion by informing the party that they were all wrong. "The only proper method," said he, "is to wrap it in your bath towel and stamp upon it. Then put it in your sponge bag. You will find it perfectly dry."

Music's Meat and Bread.

The truth is that the public taste is not as degraded as theatrical managers and others who cater to the general public would have us believe. There is a desire for the better things which is far greater than the ability of the producer to give them. In the theater the immodest "revue" and the suggestive play find existence not so much by reason of the demand of the public as because of the limitations, mental and moral, of the purveyor. In light music ragtime has its place just as fudge is regarded as an edible without entering into the category of substantial food. But the public has the taste for the meat and bread of music which it will gratify according to the supply.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Worth That, Anyway.

Mrs. Exe—How could you lie so to Mr. Dauber about that absurd picture he has at the exhibition. You told him his picture was worth the price of admission alone.
